VOLUNTEERS

The sport of Barn Hunt requires many hands to help trials and fun tests run smoothly and for participants to have a great experience both inside and outside the ring.

Volunteer jobs are not difficult, but are very important. They include activities such as:

- Scribe (marks score sheets based on judges calls and ensures correct dog is in the ring)
- Leash Runner (makes sure gate is secure, accepts leash and collar from handler, assists others)
- Course builders(help move bales around to set up the next class or level based on judges specifications)
- Gate Stewards (help folks get to and leave the ring in a timely fashion, assists others)
- Blind Stewards (assists gate steward, helps to manage people going into and out of the staged/blind area)
- Rat wranglers (inside and outside the ring) these folks take charge of the rat tube when it has been found by a dog or when it is handed outside the ring, and place the tubes in a safe designated area. (NO you do not have to actually touch any rats to do this job:)

Please let us know if you are able to volunteer by sending an email to Sandra at email:

gableridgefarm@gmail.com. Even a few hours will be helpful. A sign in sheet will also be available at the secretary desk when you arrive at the site.
